

GUEST INFORMATION

BENEFITING ARTS &
CULTURE IN NEW ALBANY

*Featuring the music of the band Chicago
Starring Brass Transit*

The New Albany Community Foundation's AMP UP the ARTS benefit at the Hinson Amphitheater

THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 2026

Featuring dinner by Cameron Mitchell Premier Events. Seating, dinner and wine are provided, no need to bring anything with you to this event.

INFORMATION UPDATES

7:00 – 8:00pm PICNIC DINNER: The Estate at New Albany
5216 Forest Drive, New Albany, OH 43054.

Parking is available onsite at the venue.

There are no tickets to the event. Instead, your names will be checked at tables at the front entrance.

There is no need to bring anything with you. You and your guests will be seated at a table and provided with a picnic dinner from Cameron Mitchell Premier Events, including wine.

After dinner, guests will proceed to The McCoy Center for the Arts for the concert (start time of the concert has been moved by ½ hour to begin at 8:30pm to allow for drive time between the venues).

Attire for the evening is casual.

8:30pm – CONCERT: The McCoy Center for the Arts
100 East Dublin Granville Road, New Albany, OH 43054

Doors will open at the McCoy Center for the Arts starting at 7:45pm for check-in.

The McCoy Center for the Arts is located adjacent to the Charleen & Charles Hinson Amphitheater.

Parking is available near the McCoy Center for the Arts and across the street at Rose Run Park near the Heit Center.

Guests will be asked to check-in and directed to the theater for the performance.

It will be festival style, theater seating with special sections reserved for sponsors.

Outside food and beverages are not permitted in the theater. Bottled water will be provided.

If you choose not to attend the dinner, you may go directly to the McCoy Center for the Arts and check-in for the concert.

Should you have any additional questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to Kelley Chretien at kelly@hinsonltd.com.